We Are Updating Our Marketing Videos

Give Your Feedback For The Next Video!

As you know, we have just rolled out new Mega Positions and have updated our online signup and most of our marketing materials. We are in the final stages of redoing the corporate video, and based on feedback provided to us over the past four years, substantial changes to the presentation are in the works (For example, many of you asked to eliminate the hype at the beginning and comparisons to other opportunities throughout the video). So tell us, what specifically do you dislike about the existing video and what would you like to see in the second?

You can fax your suggestions to (850) 864-2345 or email them to Mike@LottoMagicOnline.com.

Your Chance To Blow Your Credibility Through The Roof And Help Us Improve Our Marketing!

We are now in the the process of redoing the Lotto Magic Corporate Video and would like your testimonial.

Just tell us, how has Lotto Magic helped you?

Were you able to quit your job, quit a second job, spend more time with your family, purchase a few things you've always wanted, gain some breathing room in the finances department, have fun creating a second income, etc. How easy was it for you? Where were you before you started Lotto Magic? Where are you now?

Here are four ways to do this, in order of most preferred:

Option One: We would prefer a 1080p hi-def video recording with crystal clear audio (which most late model consumer camcorders can do). If you do not have the capability to do this, perhaps you have a friend who can record it for you (or pay a production studio to do it). The final testimonial should be no more than a minute or two. If you happen to be near Hollywood, California, or if you are near the home office in Ft. Walton Bch, Florida, it can be recorded there as well. Email Mike@LottoMagicOnline.com if either of these options work for you.

Option Two: Do an audio recording and submit a hi-res photograph, suitable for printing.

Option Three: Written script with hi-res photo. After your script is approved, give us your permission to have a "voice talent" record it for you.

Here's what to do:

First, write out your testimonial. Then, email your script to Mike@LottoMagicOnline.com along with your phone number. I will look it over and help you tweak it, if necessary, then send it back for you to record. After you see the final version you will be provided with a release form to sign. Once we have it and you agree to let us use it, we will decide where to incorporate it -- marketing books, web videos, DVD's, etc. All testimonials require a written script as we may use them in print as well.

Here are two examples (from actual members):

"Hi, I'm Kevin Lehmann from Orange Beach Alabama. When I first joined Lotto Magic two and a half years ago, I never dreamed that my one-time investment would return $40,000 plus a monthly residual income so quickly. Plus we're also playing on 2300 lottery tickets for free! If only my other investments could have done even one percent as well, I'd be a Billionaire. Thanks for delivering what you actually promise Lotto Magic. I can't wait to see what my check is next month."

-- Kevin A. Lehmann - Radio show commentator and freelance blogger

"Hi, I'm Ryan Begley, from Santa Monica California. Three years ago, I was in college and also working two jobs to support myself, girlfriend, and our newborn girl. There wasn't a second in the day or a dime to spare, but I managed to squeeze out an extra twenty minutes a day and come up with the money to join Lotto Magic. Best decision I ever made. I read your training book and got started right away. Within two months, I was able to quit one of the part-time jobs and still had money left over. A few months later, I quit the other job, moved to a new house, and now I'm doing Lotto Magic full time. My precious Ashlyn has every toy a baby could want, and most important of all, a Mom & Dad who are able to be home with her all the time. As it turns out, I went to college for finance, and that is completely useless in today's economy. Thanks for this fantastic opportunity and the incredible systems you have to build it quick!"
